Changing the game to win

The M&A market and PE acquisitions are at an all-time high. Valuation multiples are at their highest levels ever and there's considerable competition among PE firms to find and acquire those elusive "diamonds in the rough." To compound matters, corporate "strategics" are offering a viable and, at times, more competitive alternative for companies considering sale.

To succeed in this hyper-competitive market, private equity firms need to become smarter in their buying decisions, have a more robust investment thesis and speed up the value creation process.

Core benefits:

- Identify opportunities earlier
- Increase bidding competitiveness
- Improve win rate
- Reduce acquisition risks
- Identify supply chain savings & improvements
- Accelerate time-to-value creation
- Maximize exit value

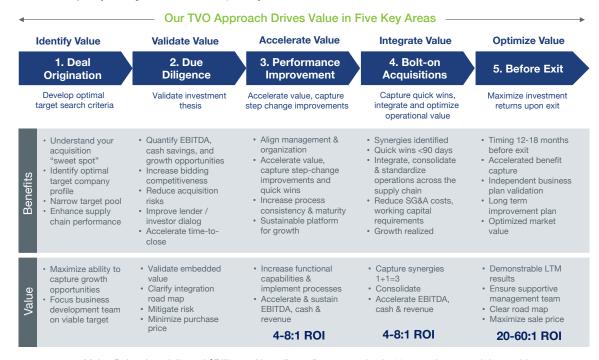

Optimizing supply chain and operations-oriented value creation opportunities

Maine Pointe's Total Value Optimization™ (TVO) due diligence and deal life cycle offerings uncover supply chain and operations-oriented value creation opportunities both pre and post-acquisition. These enable PE firms to quantify EBITDA improvements together with working capital risks and opportunities. We then develop an implementation road map for the first 90-180 days and beyond. This road map details the activities to help accelerate operational improvement. We then work shoulder to shoulder with the acquired company's management team to implement the improvement road map. Our engagements deliver between a 4:1–8:1 ROI and are underpinned with a unique 100% guarantee of engagement fees based on annualized savings.
